Mr. Cliff Guffey
President
American Postal Workers Union,
AFL-CIO
1300 L Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20005-4128

Dear Cliff:

As a matter of general interest, the Postal Service will initiate an awareness campaign regarding bargaining unit reassignment opportunities to the city letter carrier craft. The program is intended to provide career clerk, mail handler, maintenance, and motor vehicle craft employees with information on volunteer reassignment opportunities to the city carrier craft.

We have enclosed a draft copy of a letter that will be mailed to all career clerk, mail handler, maintenance, and motor vehicle craft employees and two draft posters that will be used for this campaign.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact Hallie Kline at extension 5656.

Sincerely,

SUBJECT: City Letter Carrier Position Openings

The Postal Service needs letter carriers, and now is a great time to take advantage of this opportunity. There are a limited number of city letter carrier positions available, and one of these positions might be right for you.

What are the advantages of becoming a city letter carrier?

- Base salary ranges from $44,292 to $57,704 per year
- Typically daytime work hours
- Interaction with customers
- Outdoor work
- Typically off on Sundays and holidays
- Uniform allowance

Why become a city letter carrier now?

- Taking advantage of this option now provides the greatest selection of jobs and job locations and increases the chances of finding a job near your home.
- Your letter carrier seniority starts as soon as you start.

What are the disadvantages of waiting? The longer you delay the fewer options you may have.

For more information, contact your local Human Resources office or visit eReassign on liteblue.usps.gov to identify job listings and locations.

This is an important decision. Please take the time to discuss this option with your family, and make the decision that is best for you.
