Dear Vance:

This is in response to your letter dated September 20, requesting "a one-week moratorium on grievance time limits at the local, regional and national level" for the period of Friday, September 29 to Friday, October 6 due to the American Postal Workers Union's All-Craft Conference and related meetings.

The Postal Service agrees with your request as follows:

All grievance time limits at the local, regional, and national level will be extended for a period of 7 days beyond those specified in the National Agreement.

Sincerely,

Dear Rickey,

Beginning September 29, 2017, through October 6, 2017, the American Postal Workers Union will be holding our All-Craft Conference in Las Vegas Nevada. A large number of national, regional, and local officers, stewards, and members will be in attendance and away from their respective offices for this time frame.

As has been the case in the past, I am requesting that all grievance time limits at the local, regional, and national level be extended for a period of 7 days beyond those specified in the National Agreement.

Sincerely,

Vance Zimmerman
Industrial Relations Director
