Dear Mr. Anderson:

This letter supercedes my decision dated June 25, 1982.

On June 23, 1982, we met to dicuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

The question in this grievance is whether or not management violated Article XI of the National Agreement when part-time regular employees in this office were not granted holiday pay for Christmas, 1979 and the New Year, 1980.

It is the position of the Postal Service that Part-Time Regulars in this office are paid holdiday pay, as appropriate, in accordance with Part 434.422 of the Employee and Labor Relations Manual as follows:

Part-time regular schedule employees who are regularly scheduled to work less than 5 days in a service week are ineligible for holiday pay unless the holiday falls on their scheduled workday.
