Dear Mr. Baldwin:

On April 8, 1981, we met with your representative to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

We mutually agreed that there was no interpretive dispute between the parties at the National level as to the meaning and intent of Article XIII of the National Agreement as it relates to the issues in this case.

Determinative in this grievance is whether there is light duty on the employee's tour. If such light duty is feasible, it should be made available.

Accordingly, as further agreed, this case is hereby remanded back to Step 3 in the hope that it can be resolved on the above by the parties at that level. If not, it should be further processed at that level.
