Dear Mr. Riley:

On October 25, 1977, we mat with you to discuss the abovecaptioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

The delivery of disciplinary notices to employees as cited in this grievance file is not per se bargaining unit work. This aspect of the grievance is desied.

Article XVII, Section 3 of the National Agreement states that interviews with aggrieved employees, supervisors and witnesses shall not be unreasonably denied. It is anticipated that supervisors will respond to reasonable and germana quastions during the investigation of a grievance. In this instance the specific nature or the questions and/or reasons for the response or lack thereof is not known.

Sincerely

Robert B / Bubball

Labor Relations Department
