Dear Mr. Connors:

On May 9, 1985, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The issue in this grievance is whether management improperly reassigned the grievant from the 060 work location to the 030 work location.

After further review of this matter, we mutually agreed that there was no national interpretive issue presented as to the meaning and intent of Article 17 of the National Agreement.

The parties at this level agree that while serving as a steward or chief steward, an employee may not be involuntarily transferred to another tour, to another station or branch of the particular post office or to another independent post office or installation . . . Management may, however, assign such steward to a different work location provided such assignment is not violative of the above.

Accordingly, we agreed to remand this case to Step 3 for further consideration by the parties.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.
