Dear Mr. Wilson:

On June 28, 1988, we met to discuss the above-captioned case at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The issue in this grievance is whether management violated the National Agreement when Quality Control Review checks were conducted in the CFS Unit.

During our discussion, we mutually agreed that the subject grievance is settled based on the following:

Management has not established any work or time standards in the CFS Unit. The labeling instructions will not be used as a basis for discipline.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to settle this case.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Barnett:

On September 27, 1985, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

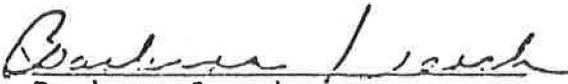

The issue in this grievance is whether management has violated the National Agreement by utilizing a procedure to time labeling mail in the CFS Unit.

During our discussion, we mutually agreed there is no violation of the National Agreement in this regard. This procedure is used to determine average work performance. It is not a Work and Time Standards Procedure.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to close this case.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

Barbara Lerch
