APWU STRONGLY OPPOSES USPS PRIVATIZATION

Many in the current administration are saying privatization is a quick fix to the problems facing USPS. Selling the Postal Service to the highest bidder would not only lead to a reduction in service and higher postage rates, it would place postal workers' health insurance, retirement benefits, collective bargaining rights, salaries, and jobs in jeopardy. While we know resolutions are not binding, nor law, these resolutions express the strong sense of Congress that the USPS must stay a public service, as intended by the Constitution.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 70 AND SENATE RESOLUTION 147

Lead Cosponsors: Rep. Stephen Lynch (D-MA-08), Rep. Nick LaLota (R-NY-01), Sen. Gary Peters (D-MI) and Sen. Dan Sullivan (R-AK)

These resolutions, introduced in the House on January 28, 2025 and the Senate on March 27, 2025, express the House and Senate's support for taking all appropriate measures to ensure that the Postal Service is not subject to privatization.

The resolutions read as follows:

Expressing the sense of the [House or Senate] that Congress should take all appropriate measures to ensure that the United States Postal Service remains an independent establishment of the Federal Government and is not subject to privatization.

Privatization would mean the end of our publicly owned and operated USPS, to be replaced in part, or whole, by private corporations interested only in lining their own pockets.

This would also mean the potential elimination of our jobs and our negotiated benefits. More specifically, it jeopardizes the future of our hard-earned retirement and healthcare benefits.

The establishment of post offices is enshrined in the U.S. Constitution and by law, USPS must provide service to all parts of the nation. Privatizing the Postal Service and eliminating this universal service mandate will have a very real and very negative impact on those who depend on affordable and reliable mail delivery. Privatization would drive up postage rates and lead to reduced service, especially to rural America.

Postal workers and our unions have joined with the public to fight for the vibrant, independent, and public Postal Service we all deserve.

LEGISLATIVE PRIORITIES

APWU SUPPORTS ON-TIME RETIREMENT FOR ALL

Postal workers who begin their postal career as temporary employees are currently not allowed to make contributions to their retirement benefits until they become USPS career employees. This bill, if signed into law, would correct this injustice by providing career employees the opportunity to make up contributions to their retirement benefits and earn credit for the time they worked as a temporary postal employee. This will allow these employees to retire on time with their full, hard-earned retirement benefits.

THE FEDERAL RETIREMENT FAIRNESS ACT (H.R. 1522)

Lead Cosponsors: Rep. Emily Randall (D-WA-06), Rep. David Valadao (R-CA-22), Rep. Nikki Budzinski (D-IL-13) and Rep. Don Bacon (R-NE-02)

This bill, reintroduced in the House on February 24, 2025, would allow temporary postal and federal employees who are promoted to career positions the option of “buying back” the time that they worked as a non-career employee to use toward their retirement.

Temporary postal employees are non-career employees, such as PSEs, transitional employees, and casuals, who are unable to make contributions to their retirement benefits until they become USPS career employees.

After making career status, postal workers were previously allowed to make retroactive “catch up” contributions to their retirement benefits for all the time they worked as a temporary employee. Unfortunately, the authority to make retroactive payments expired on January 1, 1989.

Under the proposed “buy back,” eligible postal workers would make a deposit equal to the amount that would have been contributed to their retirement benefits, had they been career employees. The calculation is determined by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM).

This legislation would help postal and federal employees better prepare for their retirement. It would affect more than 100,000 APWU members who have converted from temporary to career positions.

APWU SUPPORTS USPS MAILING ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

While private carriers are able to ship alcohol, due to outdated Prohibition Era regulations, it is currently illegal for the Postal Service to ship these products. It's time we lift this ban and enable the public Postal Service to realize the opportunity to increase revenue and expand on demanded services.

THE USPS SHIPPING EQUITY ACT (H.R. 3011)

*Lead Cosponsors: Rep. Dan Newhouse (R-WA-04)
and Rep. Suhas Subramanyam (D-VA-10)*

This bill, reintroduced in the House on April 24, 2025, would fully remove the current prohibition on the Postal Service shipping beer, alcohol, and wine direct to consumers, while setting up regulations that would require:

- Recipients to be 21 or older, with possession of a valid government-issued ID shown at time of delivery
- The Postal Service to comply with state and local laws in place at the point of delivery

This legislation levels the playing field

"I thank Rep. Subramanyam for joining me in introducing this bipartisan legislation as we work to unlock the USPS for our local producers."

-Rep. Dan Newhouse

between the Postal Service and private carriers, who are already permitted to ship alcohol and have made billions from this revenue stream.

Additionally, this bill provides equal access to all customers. The Postal Service delivers to every address, regardless of geographic location. Under this bill, people in rural areas, who would otherwise see exorbitant shipping fees or no shipping options at all, will have access to competitively-priced, direct-to-consumer shipping of beer and wine.

As the Postal Service looks for ways to innovate and diversify services, delivering wine, beer, and spirits is a clear way for USPS to offer competitive service, as well as bring in additional revenue.

It is time to allow USPS to fairly compete in this sector and allow consumers access to affordable delivery of alcoholic beverages.

APWU OPPOSES ANTI-WORKER, ANTI-POSTAL BILLS

APWU has been tracking many new bills that would negatively impact working families if passed by Congress and signed into law. Below are two of the most concerning bills since they impact postal workers and the United States Postal Service directly:

Bill Information	Why We Oppose This Bill
Paycheck Protection Act (H.R. 2174, S. 1597)	This bill would restrict all federal and postal unions from deducting dues from employee paychecks. APWU members choose to become union members and pay their dues voluntarily, but this bill would restrict your freedom to spend your earnings as you choose. In addition to union dues, this bill restricts deductions for “fees or political contributions,” which may mean all other deductions, such as COPA and TSP.
Return to Sender Act (H.R. 1982, S. 913)	This bill would take back the $3 billion given to the United States Postal Service for a new electric vehicle (EV) fleet and charging stations in the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022.

ANTI-UNION BILLS: APWU SOLIDARITY ACTIONS

APWU has also been tracking many new bills that would negatively impact federal unions if passed by Congress and signed into law. Below are four of the most concerning bills since they impact federal workers directly:

Bill Information	Why We Oppose This Bill
Protecting Taxpayers' Wallets Act (H.R. 1210, S.511)	This bill would charge federal unions for official time ("union time") and for the use of agency resources.
Preserving Presidential Management Authority Act (H.R. 2249)	This bill would give the president of the United States the ability to negotiate and/or terminate federal union collective bargaining agreements.
Federal Workforce Freedom Act (S. 1006)	This bill would ban federal employees from joining or organizing a union, as well as ban federal agencies from collectively bargaining with labor unions.
Federal Agency Sunset Commission Act (H.R. 489)	This bill would require Congress to vote regularly to reauthorize each agency or the agency would be abolished. This subjects every federal agency to partisan politics.

IMPLEMENTATION OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY FAIRNESS ACT (H.R. 82)

On January 5, 2025, the Social Security Fairness Act (H.R. 82) was signed into law. This legislation repeals the Windfall Elimination Provision (WEP) and Government Pension Offset (GPO).

The WEP formula reduced the Social Security benefits of individuals with pensions from employers who were not required to withhold Social Security taxes, but still qualified for Social Security benefits through other employment. The GPO is similar to the WEP, but affected spousal and widow(er) benefits of those receiving pensions from employers who were not required to withhold Social Security taxes.

APWU members who retired under the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) and qualify for Social Security benefits through other employment are affected by this law, as well as their spouses or widows. Those who retired under the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) are not affected by this law as they did not suffer any adverse impact to their Social Security benefits.

The Postal Service is Under Threat Hands off! our public Postal Service!

No matter how you voted in last year's election, no one voted to destroy the Postal Service. But the new administration plans to break up the Postal Service and sell it off to private corporations. Here's what you need to know and what you can do to help save the Postal Service.

FACT The Post Office is enshrined in the US Constitution and created by an act of Congress. The public Postal Service is part of the fundamental infrastructure of our great nation - binding us together.

FACT By law, the USPS is self funded. It operates through the sale of postage and postal services alone, without tax dollars.

FACT The Post Office will celebrate its 250th anniversary in July. Let's work together to bring another 250 years of strong, public postal services for every American!

FACT The USPS delivers to every address in the country—169 million addresses and 318 million pieces of mail each day—no matter who we are or where we live. In contrast, private delivery companies will only go where they can make a profit.

FACT If the Administration's plans to sell the USPS to corporations for private profit goes through, it will result in higher costs, reduced delivery days, and the end of universal delivery to every address in the country.

FACT The USPS is the low-cost anchor of the giant mail and package industry. The industry employs more than seven million people and generates more than $1.2 trillion in economic activity. At a time of booming e-commerce, the public Postal Service is as necessary as ever.

FACT The United States Postal Service is consistently ranked among the most favorable and most trusted federal agencies.

FACT Postal privatization wouldn't just be the end of reliable mail delivery, it would destroy over 600,000 good union jobs. The USPS is also the country's largest civilian employer of veterans. Good jobs build good communities.

Support and protect your public Postal Service.
