American Postal Workers Union, AFL-CIO

2027 E. C. HALLBECK SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION

When the five predecessor unions merged to form the APWU in 1971, the new union decided to maintain an academic scholarship program created in 1969 by the United Federation of Postal Clerks (UFPC) as a tribute to UFPC president E.C. "Roy" Hallbeck. Today the APWU Hallbeck Memorial Scholarship program is a self-perpetuating financial fund for providing significant educational assistance to children of APWU union members. It awards $2,000 per year for four consecutive years of college to one male and one female student from each of the five postal regions.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- ✓ A senior attending high school or other corresponding secondary school.
- ✓ Child or grandchild, including stepchild or legally adopted child of an active member, Retirees Department member, or deceased member of the American Postal Workers Union.
- ✓ Parent or grandparent must be a full dues paying member or retiree member [as defined in the APWU National Constitution and Bylaws, reference Article 3, Section 1, Section 4(d)] in good standing or must have been a member immediately preceding death.
- ✓ E.C. Hallbeck scholarship recipient must attend an accredited college or university.
- ✓ Must maintain:
  1. "B" average, or
  2. "Pass" if Pass/Fail system

STUDENT ESSAY

Submit a 350 to 500 word essay on ONE of these topics:

- How would you use social media to organize an APWU rally (at the main branch of your local post office) with the theme "U.S. Mail is Not for Sale"?
- What is the current and future impact of computer technology on postal service work? Discuss the pros and cons of collective bargaining to protect traditional postal work (e.g. mail collection, sorting, processing and delivery).
- For future employment, what will be the benefits for you to work for a company where workers have a union, as opposed to a company where no union exists?

[The essay will provide the most points in the evaluation of your application]

Applicants are expected to use encyclopedias, textbooks, and the Internet, but do not cut and paste text from the Internet without crediting your source(s). Use of biographies, bulletins, newspaper articles, the APWU newsletter, reports from private organizations or governmental agencies, personal interviews with union personnel (other than their parents) and other research materials deemed appropriate as sources of information. All research materials must be properly cited and documented.
